Job Classification Description

Associate Dean of Enrollment and Advancement/CCV   Grade 17
Non-Bargaining Unit   Exempt

BASIC FUNCTION
To oversee programs, knowledge, and supervises staff in fresh, comprise advancement when the Community College offers... these resource departic regions and particions... in offers development and special events

CHARACTERISTIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
- Plan, implement, and ensure coordination or and events, serial of the specific programs functions and services of the assigned region in conjunction with institution objectives policies and procedures
- Hire train supervise and evaluate regional employees including planning and conducting staff meetings and training programs, conferring regularly with staff to plan and coordinate regional activities
- Plan and administer the regional operating budget for site operations and academic programs
- Oversee CCV high school outreach activities
- Develop and implement strategic goals and objectives that enhance and encourage students to enroll and to successfully return the student enrollment
- Forecast of future enrollments. Provide data and information for planning documentation and projection
- Educate CCV staff, instructors and friends to the critical role of strong enrollment in the healthy college
- Support the and the goals of CCV strategic plans as they specific to enrollment and management
- Perform survey of key planning issues involving identification and recruitment of potential students populations and instructors programs design evaluation and refinement design of strengths strategies and plans research and persons of new resources services and grant funded projects
- Coordinate and assess the integrity quality and accessibility of academic programs student services and administrative services within the region

- perv se he over ~ or of sever ~ CC s es Confer reg ~ r y   h s perv sor o her CC   d. n s r ors nd s ff nd o her   C personne~ off ces o p~ n coord n e nd ev ~   e progr _ s.